DCHS student to march with Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade

Daviess County High School senior Trent Woolard has been invited to perform in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade in New York City on Nov. 28.

Woolard submitted a video application and audition that included playing a musical piece and a demonstration of marching. His performance was judged on the basis of technical proficiency, tone quality and general musicianship. Marching was also judged on a variety of criteria, including marking time and tone quality while marching.

Woolard, who will play the tuba in the parade, said he wanted to apply because it sounded like an interesting opportunity. In addition to performing in the legendary parade, his experience will include a tour of New York City, attending a Broadway musical and a visit to the theater district and Times Square.

Woolard will depart for NYC on Nov. 23 to begin rehearsals with the parade band.

Trent is the son of Robin and Summer Woolard of Owensboro.
