Community Awareness program to focus on vaping

A community awareness program focusing on the topic of vaping is scheduled from 5:30 to 7 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 13, in the Daviess County High School media center. The school is located at 4255 New Hartford Road.

The free program is designed for DCHS students and families, but members of the public are also welcome to attend. A free dinner catered by Real Hacienda will be served. Advance registration is not required.

Parents, grandparents, caregivers and anyone concerned about the increase in vaping, e-cigarettes, Juuls and other products among our community youth is encouraged to attend. Discussion topics will include health and legal consequences of those products.

Speakers will include Rebecca Horn, health education coordinator at the Green River District Health Department; Daviess County Sheriff's Office Deputy Paul Mattingly, who serves as DCHS School Resource Officer and DCHS administrators.

The program is presented by Daviess County High School with partnership and support of the Green River District Health Department and the Daviess County Sheriff's Office.
