New DCMS groundbreaking ceremony

Daviess County Public Schools will host a groundbreaking ceremony at 10 a.m. Friday, Oct. 25, at the site of the new Daviess County Middle School. The ceremony will take place at 2600 Calumet Trace (GPS address).

The program will include a performance by the Daviess County Middle School choir. Student representatives from each of the elementary schools that feed DCMS – East View, Highland, Meadow Lands and Whitesville – will unveil a sign designating the property as the site of the new school, which is scheduled to open in August 2021.

Speakers will include Matt Robbins, superintendent of the Daviess County Public Schools district; Dr. Tom Payne, chairman of the DCPS Board of Education; and Kelly Skeens, principal of Daviess County Middle School.

Former DCMS principals Gates Settle, Mike Robinson and Dr. John Ed Dunn have been invited to attend as special guests. Former principal Gene Crume will be represented by his widow and son, Hannah and Dan Crume. Local and state elected officials and representatives of engineering and contracting groups that are involved in the construction of the new school will also be in attendance.

The ceremony is open to the public. Guests may park at the Malco Theatre with a shuttle providing transportation to the groundbreaking site. Limited parking will also be available on Calumet Trace.

In case of inclement weather, the ceremony will be rescheduled to 10 a.m. Monday, Oct. 28. That announcement will be posted on the DCPS website and Facebook page – www.dcps.org and Facebook.com/DaviessCountyPublicSchools
