DCPS students to attend GSP, GSA

Fourteen students will represent the Daviess County Public Schools district at the 2019 Governor's Scholars Program and Governor's School for the Arts.

The Governor's Scholars Program is a five-week, residential summer program for Kentucky's most outstanding students as they complete their junior year of high school. This program provides academic and leadership growth in a challenging, non-traditional experience that balances a strong liberal arts program with a full co-curricular and residential life experience.

Students who will attend GSP are Macy Dame and Lilly Quinn, students at Apollo High School; and Ryan Beckwith, Andrew Birkhead, Abby Broughton, Ashley Crawford, Andrew Ellis, Simon Hanson, William Holland, Noah Owen, Jay Powers, Lucas Ruckdeschel and David Stevens, students at Daviess County High Schools.

The Governor's School for the Arts provides intensive instruction for talented high school students in the areas of dance, drama, instrumental and vocal music, creative writing, architecture and visual arts. Students will have the opportunity to audition for scholarships for the nation's top colleges and universities. Camille Moore, a student at Daviess County High School, will attend GSA in the area of vocal music.
