Deer Park cafeteria to serve ‘Junior Superintendent special’ on March 27

Luis Loaisiga, a fifth-grade student at Deer Park Elementary School, was selected to serve as the Junior Superintendent of the Daviess County Public Schools district in February. As part of his experience in working with Superintendent Matt Robbins, Luis enjoyed lunch at Olive Garden – a restaurant he chose because, he said, his mother makes great lasagna!

While eating, Supt. Robbins asked Luis if he had any suggestions for the cafeteria at Deer Park. Luis responded that he would like to see lasagna added to the menu there. Lasagna is not usually part of the menu at the elementary school level, but Robbins and food services director Lisa Sims decided to make it happen! Lasagna will be served to fifth-graders at Deer Park on Wednesday, March 27.

Luis and his class will enter the cafeteria as part of the final shift, from 12:15 to 12:40 p.m. Our media partners are invited to be there for this fun story, as we find out whether Deer Park has better lasagna than Olive Garden ... or, an even higher standard, Luis's Mom!

Deer Park Elementary School is located at 4959 New Hartford Road. For more information, call 270-852-7270.
