SES to host surprise ‘Pink Out’ to support physical education teacher

Sorgho Elementary School will be decked in all in PINK on Wednesday, Oct. 16, as the entire Sorgho family shows their support for physical education teacher Carla Clayton.

Carla will begin her battle against breast cancer with a “victory lap” around the school hallways as she rides in a specially decorated shopping cart to the cheers and applause of students and staff. Everyone will be wearing pink to demonstrate their support and love for this amazing teacher, who has done so much to encourage health and wellness among her students.

The school will be decorated with signs and posters with messages of encouragement, and Carla will be the guest of honor at a reception featuring a special menu of “pink treats.”

Carla will begin chemotherapy treatments on Thursday and is expected to be away from work until early January ... but she will know the thoughts and prayers of her Sorgho family are with her every step of the way!

Our media partners are invited to attend this inspirational event but PLEASE KEEP THIS A SECRET so the parade will be a SURPRISE for Carla Clayton!!!

The parade is scheduled to begin at 2:10 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 16. For more information, contact principal Laura Cecil at 270-852-7470 or laura.cecil@daviess.kyschools.us
