EVENT RESCHEDULED TO TUESDAY, FEB. 5

February 1, 2019

SES to host ‘Warm Hands’ glove drive

Sorgho Elementary School is hosting a “Warm Hands” collection campaign from 7 to 7:45 a.m. Tuesday, Feb. 5, at the school, located at 5390 Kentucky 56. (This event was originally scheduled for Feb. 1 but was postponed because schools were closed that day.)

Members of the community are invited to stop by with donations of gloves, mittens and hand-warmers, which will be donated to local homeless shelters and shelters in Washington, D.C.

SES staff and student members of the Sorgho Lighthouse team will be on site serving hot chocolate and Starbucks coffee, which has been donated for this event.

Representatives from other schools and surrounding school districts will be among those delivering donated items during this event. Project coordinator Heather Haynes, who is the cafeteria manager at Sorgho Elementary School, said she is thrilled about already exceeding her original goal of collecting 1,000 items.

“We already have 500 items donated just from Sorgho families alone,” she said. “Our neighbors at Whittaker’s donated 1,680 ‘Mr. Heater’ handwarmers! We’ve also heard from our sister districts in Owensboro and Cloverport, and I know Tamarack Elementary School and Daviess County Middle School are in full swing with their drives as well. We are looking forward to an amazing Friday morning!”

Our media partners are also invited to join us at Sorgho Elementary School at 7 a.m. Tuesday, Feb. 5, as our community comes together with “warm hands” gifts that will also “warm hearts” of appreciative recipients.
